

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

The voices of the people are not being heard. The faces of the people are not being seen. Without democratic ownership and control of the tools by which a society communicates with it's self, a dysfunctional society will be borne, and democracy will be lost. The battle for men's mind's is a daily struggle and we are losing. Please use your mind and your heart to realize a structure for our media that promotes public democracy instead of corporate tyranny. Thank you,
Eric Knudtson